OCLF JOINS SANTA ANA COUNCILMAN VINCE SARMIENTO IN REACHING OUT TO IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY AFTER DONALD TRUMP ELECTION IGNITES FEARS

Coalition including clergy, Labor and LGBTQ Community announce naturalization fairs

ORANGE, CA – Amid the disappointing election of Donald Trump to the Presidency, the Orange County Labor Federation (OCLF) will host a press conference to launch several Naturalization Fairs. The OCLF is committed to assisting, informing and protecting undocumented working families from deportation by helping eligible legal residents become U.S. Citizens. The OCLF is organizing a series of Naturalization Fairs scheduled for November 19th, December 3rd and December 10th.

The OCLF would also like to reaffirm its unwavering commitment to working families and immigrant communities amid President-elect Trump's anti-immigrant rhetoric. The OCLF and its allies will continue to help immigrant communities and ensuring that families are kept together.

At today's press conference, you will hear from Labor leaders, elected officials, clergy, civil rights activists, and undocumented youth will share their concern and commitment to keeping families together despite President-elect Trump's anti-immigrant administration and campaign promises of mass deportations.
